

CHARCOAL GAS INDU ACCESSORIES MARKE

Barbecuing on gas means choosing the ultimate comfort. One push on the button, and away you go. The power of your fire is very easy to control, and with a closed lid, you can cook as with an oven. This variety of cooking techniques and the unparalleled ease of use explain why the gas barbecue is becoming ever more popular year after year. With barbecook® you also get a wonderful atmosphere, for with our Aromaz® system you can now create that typical barbecue scent and taste also on a gas barbecue. And that's truly unique!

CTION ALL SEASONS TING SERVICE

Brahma

Atmosphere and power, perfectly balanced.

Brahma does not have its equal in terms of power and heat. The ingenious Turbo Heating System, for example, ensures optimal heat distribution under the grid. The result? Brahma is immediately ready for grilling and consumes up to 20% less gas as compared to other gas barbecues. Brahma is also unrivalled when it comes to atmosphere. By filling the Aromaz® saucers with a seasoning of your choice, you create exceptionally tasty and juicy dishes in no time. The delicious flavours are free, because thanks to the Brahma's powerful burners you can simply barbecue with an open lid.

Brahma

Our details make the difference.

The powerful burners (15 kW) always offer a perfectly grilled, tender result

Optimal heat distribution with the Turbo Heating System

Pure power

Brahma is the gas barbecue with the most powerful fire. Equipped with burners of 15 kW and more, Brahma lets you achieve perfect grilling results, even with open lid, which is truly unique for a gas barbecue. An additional benefit is the Turbo Heating System which ensures optimal heat distribution under the grid. This optimized distribution means that the Brahma is instantly grill-ready, consuming up to 20% less gas as compared to other gas barbecues. In other words, it is both powerful and cost-effective.

Fill the Aromaz® saucers with a flavour of choice

Aromaz® for added taste and atmosphere

Under the grid of the Brahma are two saucers that you can fill with your favourite barbecue seasoning (wine, beer, herbs or smoke chips with water, etc.). Experiment with this Aromaz® system to simply create the juiciest and most flavourful dishes ever prepared on a gas barbecue. The delightful barbecue smell and instant party feeling are added in for free!

Safe electronic ignition

Quickly cleaned

Easy lighting and maintenance

Each Brahma burner has an electronic ignition system to ensure smooth and, above all, safe lighting. After barbecuing, you can get your Brahma clean in no time. Grids, bowl, Aromaz® saucers, heat distribution plates and warming racks are all enamelled and therefore easy to clean. All separate elements can even go into the dishwasher. Storing is just as easy: the side tables without burner can be folded in, and the wheels allow you to roll the Brahma to your garage or shed.
